Wes Magee and World book Day

On Friday, Sandbrook Primary had a visit from Wes Magee who is a famous author. He writes poetry, fiction and scripts for children and adults. He gave a presentation to us all about the poems he wrote. He read lots of his poems to us and showed us actions and what types of expression we should use whilst reading them. He was funny and kind and the children thoroughly enjoyed listening to his poems. At the end of the session, we asked questions about what it's like to be an author.

Afterwards, Wes Magee visited each class where they listened to poems and even wrote their own poems. We illustrated our poems and then Wes Magee gave out signed copies of one of his new books called, 'So You Want To Be A Wizard?' We had a wonderful time and hope to have a similar event in the future.

Thank you to all who made such a great effort to dress up and to take the time to read some of Wes Magee's work.

Wes Magee commented upon the day and our team,

"Just wanted to say "very many thanks" to you for setting-up & organising such a first-class day for me at Sandbrook PS, everyone was helpful, & I thought the children were most enthusiastic, responsive, well-behaved, & hard-working in the writing sessions.

And what a book sale & signing! Wonderful! In all, a terrific day at a top-notch school. I hope the ducks enjoyed it too!

Grateful if you'd say a 'thank you' to Bethany (Year 5, I think) for her poem that she left for me on the book signing table. It's an excellent piece of writing!

Best wishes to all.....Wes (Magee)"
