Parliament Education visit KS2

Last week we had a visit from a parliament educator who put us through our democracy paces.

She transformed the hall into the House of Commons, even though our benches are the same colour as the House of Lords.

Tia was appointed Madam Speaker who presided over a debate about walking to school.

The children learnt:

- How laws are made
- MPs can be removed from the House for inappropriate comments
- MPs can be thrown out if they get 3 warnings
- MPs 'bob' up to show the Speaker that they want to make a point or ask a question

Reading Masterclasses

Mr Mervyn and Ms Temple will be running reading masterclasses for parents on the 26th and 28th of September after school. These sessions will offer suggestions on how to help your child develop their love of reading and reading skills. We know that children who develop good reading skills have a much better chance of doing well in school. We are also passionate about the joy that reading can bring and want to share this with everyone. Please join us.
