The Reading Edition!

Thank you to everyone who came to visit and bought items from the Book fair last week. In total, we have managed to raise £471.70! This gives us £223 worth of free books for our school. We had a target to sell 100 books and we sold 156 in total!

Once again, congratulations to our book review winners: Scarlett, Bethany, Matty, Sophie, Kaitlyn and Delina who benefited from £5 worth of Book Fair vouchers each.

Continued Reading Success

At Sandbrook, we are committed to raising the profile of reading. Therefore, it remains an expectation that our children are reading 5 times weekly. We ask that your child/children takes part in this reading challenge to help develop their language skills. Children should be signing their yellow reading record daily.

'The more that you read,

The more things you'll know,

The more that you learn,

The more places you'll go' – Dr. Seuss.

'Striving for excellence in everything we do' – Sandbrook Primary School.

Y6 Test Week—Monday 14th to Thursday 17th May

Finally it's here! Y6 have been working really hard in preparation for their big moment. We are prepared, focused and ready to achieve! If your child is in Y6, please do your bit and ensure that they have an early night, and are up and in school by 08:45.

We'll have breakfast before we start for those children who have returned a permission form. Bring them on!!

Royal Wedding Picnic

On Thursday 17th May the school dinner will be replaced by a picnic party lunch so the children can be part of the celebrations.

Selection Sandwiches

Cheese & Tomato Pizza Slice

Cocktail Sausage

Carrot Batons

Crisps

Shortbread Crown

Water, Milk or Juice

The cost is £2.25 if you would like your child to take part please send money to school before Wednesday 16th, this will help with catering arrangements.

Last week our Year 4/5 football team played a very competitive match against Orrets Meadow. Unfortunately our team lost 4-0 but this was a big improvement to our previous 7-1 defeat.

The only way is up!
